

TELECOMMUNICATOR ENTRANCE LEVEL EXAM

No study guide is available for the entrance exam. However, the information below may help you to prepare for this exam on your own. The exam does not assume that you have prior training or experience in dispatch work.

The entry-level exam was designed to assess critical abilities related to the content areas described below:

CONTENT	ITEMS EXAM
Listening Skills	20
Reading Comprehension	24
Ability to Learn and Apply Information	21
Reasoning Ability	18
Ability to Use Situational Judgment	17

The exam has a listening skills subtest whereby scenarios are played in an audio-format, and examinees answer questions pertaining to the instructions given.

You may even have some fun in taking this exam, so just try to prepare the best you can on your own as it pertains to the above stated abilities, relax, and just do the best you can.